By★Noah, Daniel, Ruairí and Ella-Rose

Where is Kenya?

Kenya is a country in East Africa on the coast of the Indian Ocean.

Its neighbouring countries are Ethiopia ,
Uganda , Somalia and Tanzania.

Mount Kenya

Mount Kenya is the highest mountain in Kenya and the second-highest in Africa

Mount Kenya is 17,057 ft tall

The several peaks were formed by volcanic eruptions

Capitals Of Kenya

The official capital of Kenya is Nairobi.

In the city there is a river called the Nairobi river.

The city is referenced as 'The City In The Sun'

The Nairobi River runs through the whole of the city

Weather In Kenya

The climate is dry with little rainfall. The temperature greatly varies between night and day. For example, in Nairobi, the night-time average is  $9^{\circ}\text{C}$  whilst the daytime average is  $27^{\circ}\text{C}$ .

On the mountains, the weather is cold enough for snowfall at certain times of year.

Kenya Lies on the Equator and has a pleasant Tropical climate!

What The Kenyan Flag Means

When Kenya gained its independence from Great Britain in 1963, a new flag was created. It is made up of three colours:

- The black represents the people of Kenya.
- The red represents blood.
- The green represents natural wealth.
- The white represents peace.

Food in Kenya

- A normal meal in Kenya would consist of ugali and sukuma wiki. Ugali is a cornmeal starch and is the most common food type in Kenya. It is served in restaurants and on street stalls. Sukuma wiki is a green vegetable. Ugali and sukuma wiki are eaten together and are a very common meal.
- Chapatis is another common food - it is similar to a flatbread.
- Nyama Choma (meat) and Kuku Choma (chicken) - both are slow roasted.

Food and diet in Kenya

- Irio is another popular dish - this is a mixture of potatoes, peas and corn all mashed together.
- Pilau is very popular around the coastal areas of Kenya. This is due to the fact that the country has taken influences from Indian cuisine which is a neighbouring country.
- There are different communities and therefore they have their own native foods.
- The most important food types are: cereals, like maize, depending on the area and the cereal which is grown in that area, millet and sorghum. This is then mixed with different meat and vegetables.

Landmarks in Kenya

- Mount Kenya is said to be where Kenya's name has come from. It is a dormant volcano and is the 2nd highest mountain in Africa.
- Kenya runs along the coast, and is located beside the Indian ocean.
- Lake Victoria is situated within Kenya, it is located across 3 African countries (Kenya is one of these countries). This lake is the 2nd largest freshwater lake in Africa and 3rd in the whole world.
- Lake Nakuru is found in Kenya and it is the home to the world's largest flamingo colony. As a result the lake is known as the pink lake (as seen in this photo).

Landmarks in Kenya

- Nairobi National Park - this is one of the only cities in the world to have a wildlife park in the middle of a city.
- The Maasai Mara - at the Mara river, every year, the wildebeests and zebras have a mass migration. It is listed as one of the 7 wonders of the modern world. It takes place at the Maasai Mara game reserve.
- Lamu Town - It is listed as a UNESCO world heritage site as it is one of the only towns in the world with its original buildings and roads. Only donkeys and walking is allowed (so no vehicles).
